

Marriages.

In the Catholic church at Iron River, Mich., on Wednesday morning at eight o'clock, January twenty-six, 1887, occurred the marriage ceremony, by Rev. Father Haas, of Mr. Timothy Sullivan, of Crystal Falls, and Miss Jennie Murphy, of Iron River. Tim. Sullivan is possibly as well known as any railroad man in the Upper Peninsula, and has arrived at the age where he knows just what he is doing, and in doing it, took, in the person of Miss Murphy, one of the Range's fairest daughters. May all of the happiness and good fortune that is possible to attend two people come to them, is the wish of THE DIAMOND DRILL. They will at once proceed to house-keeping in Crystal Falls.

James Crossman and Mrs. Mary Harvey, of the Great Western, were married on Tuesday evening, by the Rev. W. T. Doggett. They will at once go to house-keeping and THE DIAMOND DRILL wishes them abundant joy.

Mr. Timothy McCarty, the well known contractor and builder, and Mrs. Bregger were quietly married at the latter's residence in Crystal Falls, on Wednesday. This journal adds its blessing.

Homesteaders in Arms.

After all the admonitions and good advice of his Honor Judge Grant given at the last term of the Circuit court, it seems the homesteader is determined to have a different opinion; however, the majority of them are bound not to make themselves criminally liable. Last Saturday a crowd of some fifteen or so, well armed, proceeded in a body to Mike Donahue's homestead and threatened the lumbermen with violence if they would not discontinue working. There being but a few men at work, resistance was useless and they quietly returned to their camp, where they were soon reinforced with the foreman, Mr. McQuinn, and many others; but when they arrived at the scene of the expected battle they found that the war-like homesteaders had retreated homeward, but not before they fell several maple trees across the logging roads, which were speedily removed by the lumbermen. Attempts were made to gather more reinforcements to go on the war-path on Monday afternoon, but at a late hour everything was quiet. We understand Mr. Alexander, one of the firm, intends to prosecute the invaders of his rights to the full extent of the law.—Iron River correspondence to Menominee Range.

The Meanest Man.

A story of close management is told about a Yankee who lately settled in the west. He was the picture of a mean man, but, as he put himself to work in good earnest to get his house to rights, the neighbors helped him. After he had everything fixed to his satisfaction, he thought that he must have some chickens. He was to honest too steal and too mean to buy them. At last a thought struck him—he could borrow. He went to a neighbor and thus accosted him: "Wal, I reckon you hain't got no old hen nor nothin' you'd lend me for a few weeks, have you, neighbor?" "I will lend you one with pleasure," replied the gentleman, picking out the very finest in the coop. The Yankee took the hen home and then went to another neighbor and borrowed a dozen eggs. He then set the hen and in due course of time she hatched out a dozen chickens. The Yankee was again puzzled; he could return the hen, but how was he to return the eggs? Another idea—and who ever saw a live Yankee without one?—he would keep the hen until she had laid a dozen eggs. This he did and then returned the hen and egg to their respective owners, remarking as he did so. "Wal, I reckon I've got as fine a dozen of chickens as you ever laid your eyes on and they didn't cost me a cent, nuther."—Ex.

The above display of gall is only equalled by the man who borrows his neighbor's local paper to read, because he is too penurious to subscribe for it himself.

A Call.

To whom it may concern: A mass-meeting of the citizens of Crystal Falls, Mich., will be held at Doucet's hall on Wednesday evening next, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of incorporating our village. A large attendance is earnestly requested.

DIAMOND CHIPS.

Throw out the pack peddlers. Man wants but little here below zero. Business of all kinds is very lively here just now.

Sleighting was the general order of things on Sunday.

A little January thaw and a great deal of January freeze this week.

Considerable building will be done here as soon as spring opens up.

Dr. Metcalf will build a residence and have it ready for occupancy by April.

THE DIAMOND DRILL can be found on sale at the drug store of J. L. Kimball & Co.

A small fortune awaits the man who will erect a dozen or so tenement cottages here.

Barney Riley made several splendid mining ladders for the Kimball mine this week.

The Ancient Order of Foresters has rented the upper portion of James Mc-

Neal's building and is fixing it up for its lodge purposes.

Immense quantities of supplies go into the woods every day for the lumber camps.

Keep your buildings well insured, as it is about all the protection to be had just at present.

D. Bannerman will receive a car load of new milk cows next week and will sell a part of the lot.

Ralph M. Atkinson manufactures a splendid ink eraser. The article can be inspected at this office.

Much sickness prevails in town at present. Bad colds and rheumatism are the principal complaints.

This may be startling news to many, but, nevertheless, it is a fact that the days are beginning to lengthen.

The preliminary survey to Kimball's mine runs directly through Gottlieb Urban's barn and Gottlieb is in a quandry.

There is no question now about the "solid north." Thermometers and all else except THE DIAMOND DRILL froze up.

A DIAMOND DRILL man enjoyed a sleigh ride yesterday behind Charley Henry's trotter, Jay-Eye-See, and hereby returns thanks.

C. S. Johnson, the Marinette jewelry peddler, disposed of $1,000 worth of his wares in three lumber camps one day this week.

The logging business in the various camps around us is very active and the snow is of sufficient depth to afford tip-top sleighing.

The funeral of Dora Dell, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Eldred, which occurred here last Sunday was largely attended.

Boys from the lumber camps are requested, when in town, to call at this office and get a supply of papers to take into the camp with them.

Later developments go to show that the landlord's cow, mentioned last week, is twenty-one years. Her horns show evidence of a recent dressing down with a file.

Wolves are unusually plentiful this winter. It is claimed by a reliable citizen of Florence that their dismal howls can be distinctly heard from the woods, by persons in town.

A man whose name was not learned, on Monday, while in a beastly state of intoxication, fell under a moving train, but was pulled out just in time to prevent his being mangled.

The accident which happened to THE DIAMOND DRILL machinery is being repaired as fast as possible when everything will be in readiness to turn out first class work.
